

Meet Mrs. Tracy – Affectionately Known as “Mama Sita”

Mrs. Tracy is the proud Owner and Director of Babies’ “R” Blessings Family Home Childcare with more than 40 years of dedicated experience in early childhood care. Lovingly known by many as “Mama Sita”, she brings both heart and expertise to the world of home childcare. As a caring mother and dedicated grandmother, her nurturing spirit extends and demonstrates a strong commitment to caregiving that spreads beyond her family to all children under her supervision.

With the enduring support of her wonderful husband of 23 years, she has demonstrated a longstanding commitment to working with children throughout her career. Mrs. Tracy is committed to fostering a supportive, well-organized, and engaging environment in which each child is valued, recognized, and encouraged. With extensive experience and a profound dedication to her profession, she serves not only as a compassionate childcare provider but also as a reliable guide throughout each child's early developmental stages.

At Babies “R” Blessings Home Childcare, the name “Mama Sita” signifies the warmth, wisdom, and genuine care consistently provided to every family she has served and continues to serve.
